

Thank you for your letter of March 19, 2009.

A review of our records revealed that we inadvertently filed a 48 Hour Notice twice for the $2,300 contribution from Martin King on October 26th. We believe that the likely cause was selecting an improper date range in our filing software when one of the reports was prepared.

We apologize for any inconvenience that this matter may have caused.
